

SMU Students in the News
Highlights from April 5-11, 2016

SMU students Chad Kehoe and Alexander Prince create, launch website for medium-term student sub-leasers

<http://www.smudailycampus.com/news/two-smu-graduates-launch-site-to-ease-subleasing-woes>

SMU student Brett Moore received the 2016 Donald C. McCleary Gardere Leadership Scholarship from Gardere Wynne Sewell LLP, at the Dallas Bar Foundation Fellows Luncheon

<http://generalcounselnews.com/smu-law-student-awarded-donald-c-mccleary-gardere-leadership-scholarship/>

SMU engineering students win second on the steel bridge competition at the Texas-Mexico Regional American Society of Civil Engineers Student Symposium, hosted by Texas Tech last weekend

http://www.dailytoreador.com/lavida/steeling-the-spotlight-engineering-students-compete-in-steel-concrete-design/article_67825d24-ff71-11e5-974b-9fcebca357b4.html

Co-ed student-run a cappella group Stampede to perform second spring concert

<http://www.smudailycampus.com/ae/smus-co-ed-a-cappella-group-stampede-to-perform-second-spring-concert>

Commentary, new UC curriculum and new STEM requirements potential impact on Meadows students

<http://www.smudailycampus.com/opinion/new-uc-proposal-has-potential-to-be-step-backwards>

Dance students prepare for senior showcase

<http://www.smudailycampus.com/smulive/seniors-prep-for-the-senior-showcase>

SMU student Anika Reza writes about Donald Trump's campaign giving license to racists

http://www.huffingtonpost.com/anika-reza/trumps-campaign-is-singli_b_9620350.html

Compiled by Cherri Gann '15
SMU News and Communications
Office of Public Affairs
P.O. Box 750174
Dallas, TX 75275-0174
214-768-7657