EXTRA MILE AWARD

Recognize a supportive faculty member

If you have a learning difference and have encountered an extra-special professor who has been supportive of your learning issues and gone the "extra mile" for you, PLEASE nominate him or her for the Extra Mile Award. Send the professor's name and a statement as to why you are nominating him or her to alexat@smu.edu.

Call to artists with disabilities: submissions from Texas artists with disabilities can be sent to be used for the poster for the Governor's Committee on People with Disabilities. Deadline to apply is March 15. http://governor.state.tx.us/disabilities/ndeam/ndeam\_poster/

COSD Student Summit for Career Exploration

April 11-12th!

Sheraton Fort Worth Hotel, Fort Worth, TX

FREE Networking/career conference for students with disabilities in FW, TX April 11-12th!

Consider applying to attend this event that brings together current students or recent grads to network (both formally and informally) and learn more about marketing yourself to employers. Currently AT&T, Bank of America, Cisco, Ernst & Young, GE Oil and Gas, KPMG, TI, Microsoft, and Northrop Grumman will have representatives to present on career-related topics. It is FREE but they only accept 60 students so apply now. For more information about COSD, please go to <http://www.cosdonline.org/full-access>

Is reading slowing you down?

If you have wanted to pursue using the Kurzweil reader to listen to your books and don't have the time or money to make it happen, talk to a DASS staff member about some resources to make this easier for you.

Scholarship:

$1,000 for enrolled college students (undergrad or grad) with disabilities. Deadline 3/15/14

Write an essay with no more than 750 words on the topic "Do you believe ObamaCare will eventually be beneficial for our country?"
